

Internationally Renowned Releford Institute Selects URClients Mobile Solutions to Communicate with Patients

Irvine, California – October 31, 2011- TEGA Technologies today announced that the internationally renowned Releford Institute has chosen its URClients integrated text, email and voice mobile solutions, specifically designed for the wellness industry.

Based in Inglewood, CA, the Releford Institute is dedicated to helping reducing the number of diabetes-related amputations in high risk populations and is recognized as a leader in the field, both domestically as well as internationally. Institute founder, Dr. Bill Releford is a frequent guest expert on national television programs including The NBC Nightly News, The Today Show and The View.

By utilizing phone, email and video for patient interaction, the Releford Institute recognizes that the latest mobile solutions from TEGA will be an important component of its communication infrastructure because of its ease of use and scalability.

TEGA's totally integrated text, email and voice mobile solutions are specifically designed for the wellness industry. URClients will enable the Releford Institute to deliver fully automated text, email and voice messages to its patients with notifications about appointments, patient services, prescription reminders, surveys and health care bulletins.

TEGA Technologies revolutionized the mobile marketing industry with URClients, the world's first totally integrated text, email and voice marketing software. Based in Irvine, California, TEGA leads the mobile marketing industry in innovation by automating on demand marketing campaigns based on specific customer interests for most industry verticals including hospitality, retail, non-profit, automotive, gaming, wellness and leisure.
